

Me on the beach

The wild beach from Perișor

Located at the confluence of the Danube and the Black Sea, Perișor beach is an absolutely wonderful place in Romania, hidden from tourists.

It is truly a wild beach with crystal clear water, horses and all kinds of birds.

The beach is a few meters wide, and access there is by water. To the south of the beach is the protected area Periteasca-Leahova, and to the north Sacalin-Zatoane.

From here you can also visit the lakes Chiril, Isac, Uzlina and Gura Filatului.

Periboina Beach

It is a beach of a special wilderness, where the waters of Lake Sinoe merge with the sea and is located 30 km from Constanța.

Reeds, shells, birds and small creatures that make their way in this wild place, a place very rarely visited by people.
