

ERASMUS +

Sea in sight

Mer en vue

Collège Thalassa Erquy

ERQUY – Côte de Penthièvre

Erquy is a small town in Les Côtes d'Armor.

It is by the Channel (La Manche in French) on the north coast of Brittany, in the north-west of France.

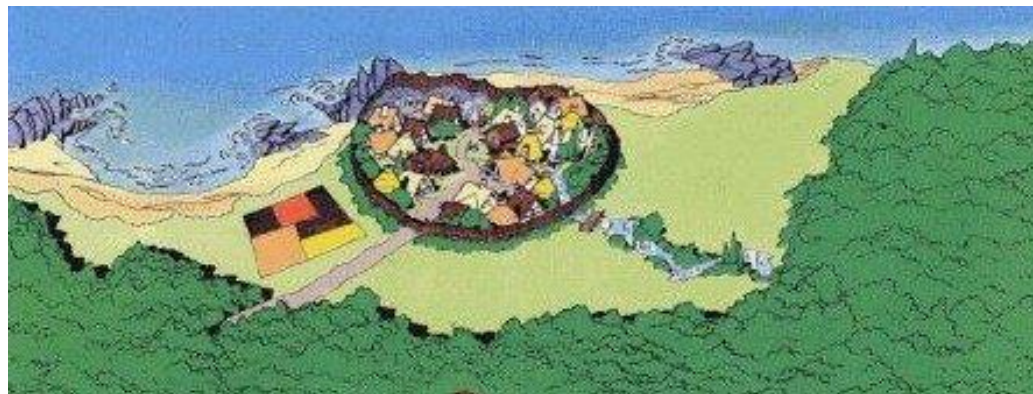

There are about 4,000 people living there throughout the year and at least ten times more in summer.

ERQUY – Côte de Penthièvre

The economy is dominated by three main activities:

- Agriculture
- Fishing
- Tourism

Erquy is also supposed to be Astérix village ...

ERQUY – Côte de Penthièvre

Erquy is very well known for scallop fishing and is even the first scallop fishing harbour in France.

ERQUY – Côte de Penthièvre

Close to Cap Fréhel and Fort-La-Latte, Erquy is one of the most beautiful natural sites in Brittany.

Collège THALASSA – Erquy

8
classes de collège

184
élèves au collège

Thalassa school is a small secondary school with fewer than 200 students (aged 11 to 15) and about 20 teachers.

//www.college-thalassa-erquy.ac-rennes.fr/

Collège THALASSA – Erquy

Many sports and cultural activities are available to students.

Collège THALASSA – Erquy

Visit to the European Parliament in Strasbourg in 2017.

And for the first time

